An Overview of Council #10

Serving Public Employees in Camden County
 Since 1935

About Council #10

Council #10 is an independent labor union representing approximately 1,600 public employees in Camden County. At one time, Council #10 was part of the New Jersey Civil Service Association. In the 1980's Council #10 split from other councils in the NJCSA but retained the name of Council #10. As an independent union, we answer only to our members.

Council #10
Office
330 Market St.
Camden, NJ

As defined in our Constitution and Bylaws, Council #10's principal mission is to obtain fair wages and benefits for the employees it represents. Council #10 works to ensure that every represented employee is respected for the work they perform.

Our office at #330 Market Street (at the corner of Fourth and Market Streets) is open to you during business hours (M-F 8:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m.). You can also contact the office by telephone: (856) 541-4191, fax machine: (856) 541-9390, and email: office@council10.org. Visit our website (www.council10.org) any time.

We encourage you to discuss work-related problems with your shop steward or trustee. If you need assistance in determining or reaching your shop steward or trustee, contact the union office.
